A STORY OF FAITH, COURAGE & FORGIVENESS

A dream. A difficult journey. A choice to forgive.

Joseph’s colourful coat made his brothers jealous, and his dreams seemed far from coming true. Taken from home to Egypt, Joseph faced unfairness and years of waiting. But he kept serving faithfully, used his gifts to help others, and became a wise leader in a time of need.

When his brothers came to Egypt, Joseph had the power to turn them away. Instead, he chose mercy and helped his family begin again.

INSIDE THIS STORY & COLOURING ADVENTURE

- A child-friendly retelling of Joseph’s story
- Five original black-and-white colouring pages
- Drawing, discussion, and reflection activities
- Genesis references to explore with a grown-up

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Bright Wealth N. Danquah is a pastor, educator, and author devoted to helping children discover the strength of God’s Word and live it with purpose. Through faith-centred storytelling, he brings biblical truths to life—encouraging young readers to trust God through uncertainty, stand firm in what is right, and choose forgiveness even when it is difficult. He believes the values children build today can shape the lives and communities of tomorrow.

Read the story. Find the verse. Make it your own.

JOSEPH

DREAMS • COURAGE • FORGIVENESS

A Bible Story and Colouring Adventure for Children

BRIGHT WEALTH N. DANQUAH